

Ladies Luncheon

September 30, 2017

Please join us on the top floor of The Brown Hotel for our Ladies Luncheon, where we will have an opportunity to see old friends, meet new friends, and be entertained. As always, hats are optional.

Our speaker will be longtime SAR volunteer Allan Steinberg who is co-founder of the Louisville Historical League, which began in 1972. Allan is treasured by SAR staff for his assistance in educational outreach. He regularly speaks about Louisville history and conducts walking tours of downtown, including Museum Row, where SAR headquarters is located.

Allan will share “History and Fun Facts” about Louisville.

Be sure the luncheon is checked on your SAR’s registration form!
